The 103rd year of St. Patrick High School was a year of new concepts. It was a year which displayed greater emphasis on religious, social, and extra-curricular life. In all, the St. Patrick High School of 1964 was a foundation of learning and guidance with the object of helping us toward our future Christian life.

A new and daring concept in teaching, closed circuit television, became a normal part of school life in the West Building. Special programs explaining our community along with television classes concerning student services were presented to the students via this improvement.

For the first time in our history, we gained possession of a league championship in football. What a great precedent to leave with a school! We again continued a tradition in basketball, as once more we were hailed as the powerhouse of the league, capturing as many titles and trophies as were in sight.

St. Patrick has finally seen the coming of a resident chaplain. The availability of daily Mass, Communion, and Confession has led many to hope and work for a stronger and more universal religion. Aiming in these directions, the services of the chaplain are indeed beneficial to the student body.

Certainly, the new wave of student responsibility manifested in the councils of our Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, and the new School Council, was among the most dynamic changes at St. Patrick. These young men repeatedly experienced the joys and trials of extending to the student body the chance to accept the responsibilities of manhood. The Thanksgiving Dance, one of the main projects which they conceived and sponsored, proved to be a great success and a step toward achieving their long-range goal. Their assemblies, well planned and efficiently executed, will long be remembered as the first of their kind. Student government had given us the freedom to be men, and the most joyous time came when we responded to this challenge.

Finally, looking toward the future, a program of expansion has been set over a three year period. When our goal is met, St. Patrick will have a new gym with facilities for a swimming pool and handball courts. The gym will be easily converted into an assembly hall quite capable of handling dramatic arts presentations.

Indeed this past year will be known for its great and diverse innovations—new concepts—good things in themselves, and as a very solid foundation for the future.

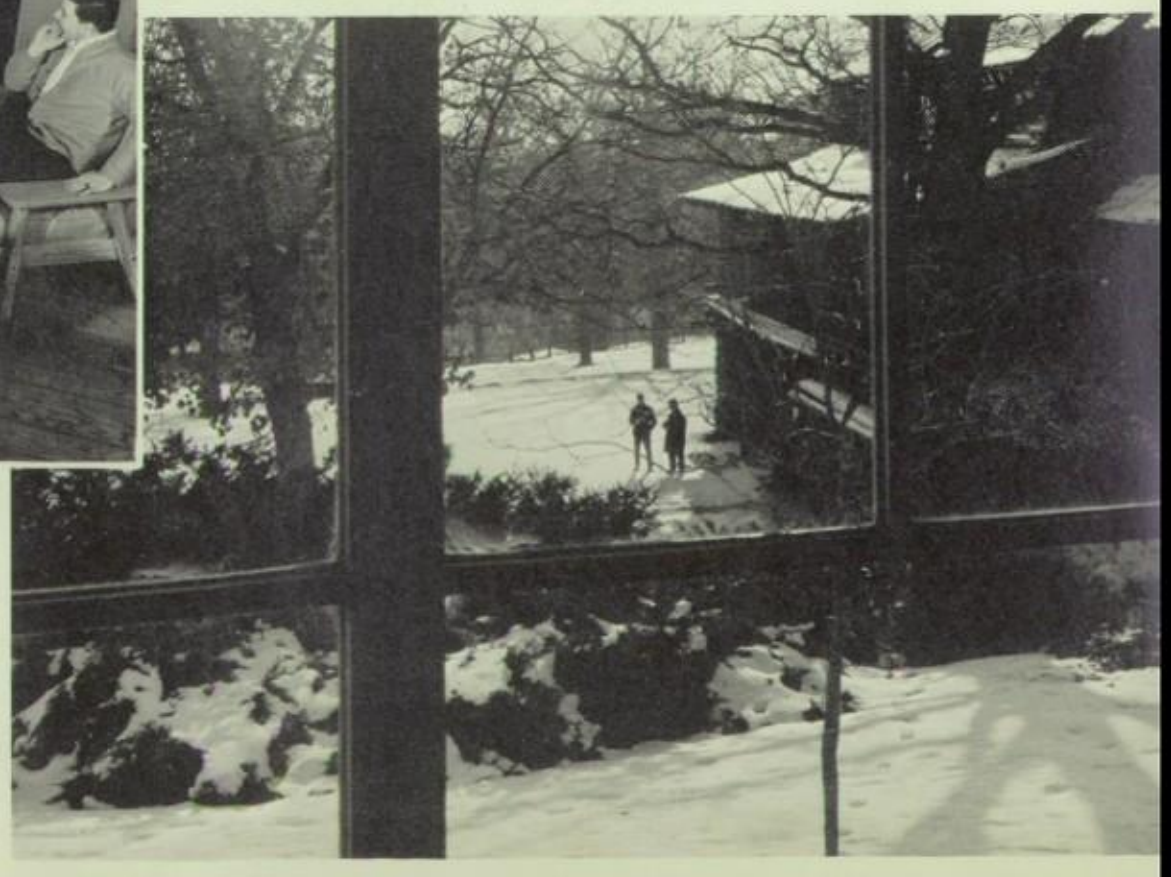
SENIOR RETREAT

Spiritual reading plays an important part in retreat life.



The Manor's unusual architectural style provides an enjoyable break in student life.

Each year senior Patsmen spend what may well be the most important three days of their high school career at Plano, Ill. Here, in the Christian Brothers' retreat house, La Salle Manor, each member of the senior class is helped to strengthen his personal and spiritual convictions. With the expert guidance of Brother Frederick, the chance to read, think, and pray without the distractions of daily life becomes an invaluable aid in planning for the future.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS: W. Gorgo, Secretary; J. Marino, President; W. Fabis, Vice-President; J. Sahn, Treasurer; Brother L. Peter, Moderator.

The National Honor Society and its counterpart among the Freshmen and Sophomores, the Junior National Society, are two of the most selective groups in the school. No students join either of these organizations, for membership in them is given only to those elected on the basis of leadership, service, character, and, above all, scholastic achievement. At present membership in these two organizations has far surpassed that of any previous year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

JUNIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Moderated by Brother L. Peter, the National Honor Society gives members a chance to display the many talents which earned for them the highest honor accorded a Patsman. It is from this capable group that the staff of the Shamrock is chosen. National Honor Society members also usher at various school functions.

Members of the Junior National Honor Society meet the same strict requirements as the National Honor Society members and perform similar duties.

Brother L. Peter, Moderator; W. Fabis, Editor; A. Bannick, Assistant Editor.

The Shamrock is presented to the students of St. Patrick in the hope of retaining for them the memory of many profitable and enjoyable hours which they have invested in their school during the past year. For the seniors especially we hope it will hold a lasting picture of a year well worth remembering.

Every page in the Shamrock represents hours of hard work on the part of those National Honor Society members who take on the added responsibility of yearbook work. We are also indebted to Brother L. Peter, the moderator, whose excellent advice accounts for much of whatever success this year's annual will attain.

SHAMROCK STAFF

ASSOCIATE EDITORS: W. Gorgo, E. Ferretti, D. Wayne, J. Kowalski, M. Kretch.

Seated clockwise: M. Hannon, J. Laukkanen, T. Fugiel, S. Nakon, J. Hennigan, P. Storer, R. Rasane. Standing: T. Cahill, J. Vitacco.

SENIOR COUNCIL

The St. Patrick Senior Council, now in its second year, has come to fulfill some of its enormous potential. Aside from directing sock-hops, dances, and the Senior Prom, the council took on the added responsibilities of the Christmas Basket Drive, the Homecoming, the establishment of a school council, and the direction of council-planned assemblies. Each of these responsibilities was met adequately, to the satisfaction of both the council and the administration.

It is hoped that in the future the new school council will serve to unite the four individual councils and therefore unite the entire student body.

All in all, the work of this year's council not only set the actual groundwork for future progress, but also a model of spirit and effort which succeeding classes would do well to follow.

The Television Club is one of the fastest growing clubs in the school, in terms of both size and importance. Not only does it perform a valuable service for the school by its work with the new television system, but it also offers the students a practical education in the fields of electronics and communications. Members are trained by Brother Louis to operate all the equipment used in modern television studios. Such an opportunity as this is made available at very few schools in the entire state.

The Library Staff of St. Patrick High School performs an important service for both students and teachers alike. Under the direction of Brother Joel this group is largely responsible for maintaining order and accuracy in the stack room. They also assist Brother in checking out books and placing returned books in their original positions. Their value can be attested to by anyone who has done research work in our library.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB OFFICERS: R. Templin, Vice-President; W. Kestler, Distribution Manager; Brother Joel, Moderator; J. Krajenta, President.

The members of the Audio-Visual Club undertake two different tasks. First, they are responsible for the distribution and maintenance of the Audio-Visual projectors, recorders and phonographs. They also study the operation of these materials so that they are able to make full use of them during the school day. Because of their abilities, they take complete charge of the machines which their rooms make use of as visual education aids.

CHORUS

CHORUS

The Chorus, now in its eighth year at St. Patrick, has once again surpassed the notable successes of recent years. Under the competent guidance of Brother A. Konrad, the director of this group, and his assistant, Brother I. Cormac, perfection has become the keyword in all of their praiseworthy efforts so far undertaken. Although it is the largest organization in the school, few others can boast of such well-organized participation on the part of its members. Participants, now numbering over one hundred and twenty, practice each morning on the stage before school and at special sessions on Sundays. The fruits of their long hours of labor can be judged by the success of their two annual concerts, at Christmas time and in the Spring, as well as of their other numerous engagements throughout the school year. This included a trip to St. Mary's College in Winona, Minnesota, which was enjoyed no less by the Chorus than by their audience. At St. Patrick, the Christmas Concert was delightful, while the Spring Concert, which featured the combined abilities of our Chorus and the girls' chorus of Alvernia High School, was equally enjoyable. The stage scenes at these two performances were excellent combinations of talent and color which added to the overall excellence of them. All in all, the Chorus this year, in increasing its efforts, also increased several-fold the entertainment that it has afforded thousands of grateful admirers.

ART CLUB

The Art Club of St. Patrick was organized for those students who manifest interest and talent in the field of art. This year, under the leadership of Mr. Schneller, it has continued to give these students a chance to make use of their talents. The Art Club was again responsible for many of the posters, decorations, and newspaper illustrations enjoyed throughout the year.

STAGE CREW

The Stage Crew is an invaluable asset to all extra-curricular groups at St. Patrick. This small handful of hard-working Patsmen is responsible for the stage scenes during our concerts as well as the setting for talks and assemblies throughout the year. All the students profit in terms of enjoyment by the efforts of this group.

JUNIOR BENILDUS CLUB

The Senior and Junior Benildus Clubs were organized at St. Patrick High School in order to give the students a chance to determine their vocation in life and follow it. Each morning the Benildus Club members pray one decade of the rosary for vocations and each first Friday they offer Mass together for the same purpose.

With the help of Brother Cormac, the club's moderator, many interesting and informative guest speakers have been brought in to speak at the monthly meetings of the Benildus Clubs. The many members have found these things invaluable aids in planning the future.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club is now in its fourth year at St. Patrick, and this year was no exception to the ever-growing popularity of this activity. Students interested in the school's biology course have found this a worthwhile supplement to their classroom study of the science.

The highlight of the Biology Club activities this year was again the annual Christmas Toy Drive. Instituted by Mr. Welker, the club's moderator, the drive provides Christmas toys for needy children. The club headed the school in this praiseworthy effort which brought happiness to many less fortunate boys and girls.

BIOLOGY CLUB OFFICERS: Front Row: R. Rizzo, Vice-President; Mr. Welker, Moderator; F. Bieschke, General Chairman of Committees; W. Hepperle, President. Row 2: G. Dmyterko, Treasurer; A. Cuccio, Secretary; R. Templin, Projectionist.

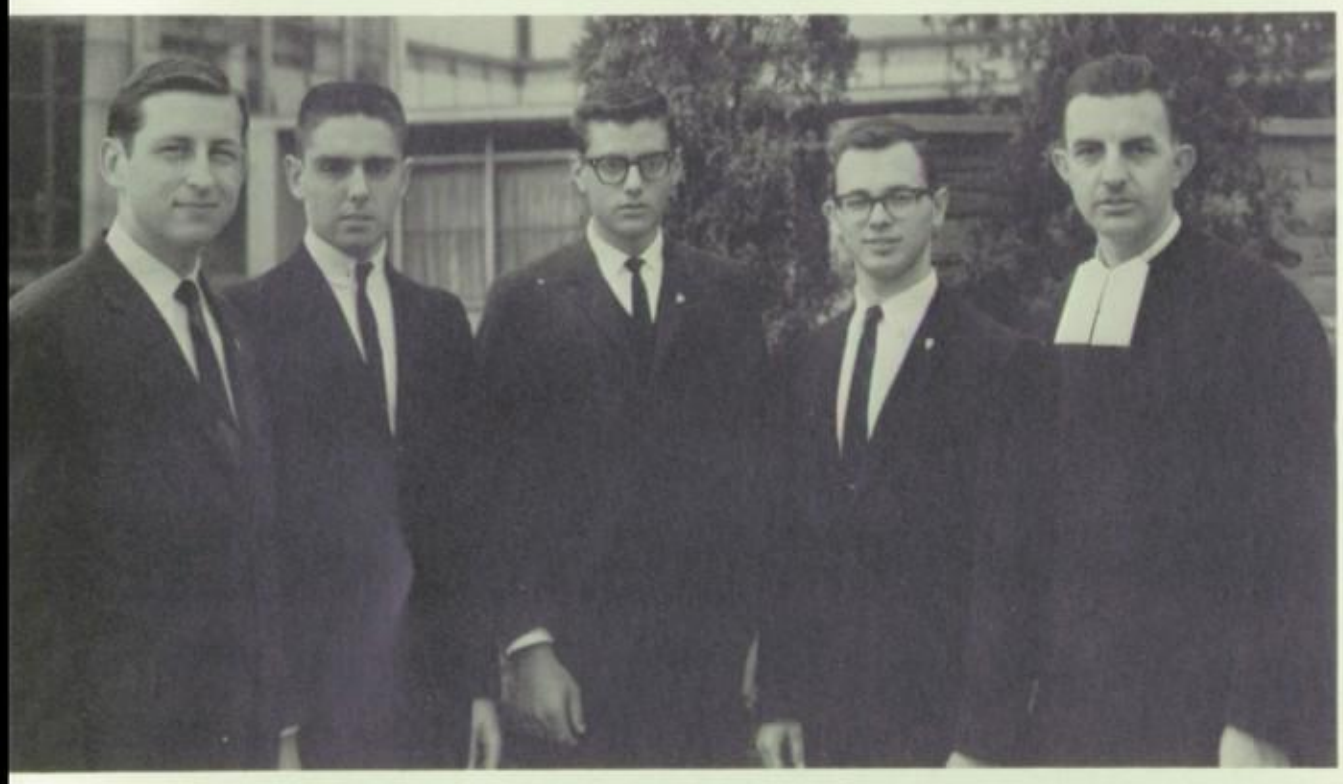
SCHOLARSHIP CLUB



SCHOLARSHIP CLUB OFFICERS: W. Fabis, President; R. Schleicher, Treasurer; W. Gorgo, Secretary; T. Dobson, Vice-President; Brother Louis, Moderator.

The Scholarship Club, which is composed of college-conscious seniors, helps the students to meet the high scholarship requirements of most schools. With the help of Brother Louis, the club's moderator, members are familiarized with the various forms of financial aid made available to good students. An attempt is also made to acquaint the members with the different types of questions which are likely to appear in the numerous scholarship tests. This organization is undoubtedly responsible, at least in part, for the many scholarships obtained by our recent graduating classes.

This year's Green and Gold has maintained a standard of excellence characterized by the paper in the past. The voice of St. Patrick contains interesting and timely information which has created new interest in each successive printing.

The Green and Gold provides the student body with interesting reading covering news, sports, and social events. The program initiated by Mr. R. Bielecki, moderator of the paper, to develop the abilities and talents of the staff by greater participation has proved highly successful in achieving its aims.

The competition which the Sheen Club met this year was among the most intense ever undertaken by its speakers. Despite the shortage of upperclassmen, the outstanding reputation of St. Patrick has once again been proudly upheld.

Besides debate, which most of us associate with this activity, Sheen Club speakers compete in many diverse areas at numerous tournaments during the year.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

For the third year, the Philosophy Club provided a forum of thought for those students interested in the study of the operations of the human mind. Under the leadership of Mr. Paul Schneller, the members are given an opportunity to discuss their opinions on this subject as well as to learn new concepts.

COIN CLUB OFFICERS: R. Rizzo, Treasurer; F. Calistri, Secretary; Brother Stanislaus, Moderator; F. Kopczynski, Vice-President; J. Kubiniec, President.

COIN CLUB

The Coin Club was founded in order that students interested in coin collections might discuss their collections with others and also add to them. Brother Stanislaus, the club's moderator, holds frequent auctions at which members may purchase new coins.

To those students who have earned a major letter in one of the many activities of St. Patrick, we extend our sincere congratulations and thanks. Congratulations are in order because these awards are a representation of hours of hard work and effort. Thanks are due because it is through such efforts that the reputation of St. Patrick is upheld.

SKATING PARTY

Always among the most popular social events sponsored by the school, our annual skating party provides an opportunity for Patsmen (and friends!) to "roll their cares away." The affair held this year reflected the tremendous amount of effort which the Junior class, which organized the party, devoted to its preparation. A local skating rink, the Hub, served as the scene for the affair, which took place on October 21.

The many who enjoyed themselves at this year's party are looking forward with eager anticipation to next year's event.

MOTHERS' CLUB

This year's Mothers' Club has, without a doubt, succeeded in accomplishing its goals. Under the direction of Brother L. William, its moderator, and the officers, it has seen the fruition of its planning and organization. It has enjoyed the successes of such social activities as the Fashion Show, the Day of Recollection, the Senior Father and Son Communion Breakfast, in addition to luncheons and bake sales held throughout the year. Besides these social events, it has also included in its schedule discussions on pertinent problems facing teen-agers today. The Mothers' Club has played a very important role in the success of the school program. Its generous and unselfish interest in the school deserves the gratitude of the whole student body.

THANKSGIV

Thanks to the combined efforts of the Senior and Sophomore classes, the 1963-64 social calendar saw the addition of a Thanksgiving Dance, perhaps the first of many such events. Its success is reflected not only in the

HOMECOMING

Shamrocks go over for six.

One of the most enjoyable events throughout any high school year is the annual homecoming. It has been popularly known as a day of celebration, and Saint Patrick's 1963-64 Homecoming was no exception.

The day's festivities began with the float and car procession that started at school and proceeded to the stadium in a brilliant and colorful parade. It then made a second appearance at half time when the different cars were judged and, of course, the queen was crowned.

Success continued to be ours as we defeated Holy Cross 42—0, thus adding to the homecoming spirit. Later that evening all were invited to celebrate the victory at a soc-hop, which was an appropriate end to the festivities of the day.

One of the many colorful floats.

"What do you mean a flat tire?"

"Paddy-cake, paddy-cake . . ."

"You think findin' a needle in a haystack is bad?"

SOC-HOPS

Always popular among the year's social events are the soc-hops which are held periodically throughout the school year. This fact could have easily been seen by anyone who had attended any of the dances this year, since each one was an overwhelming success.

Much of their success was due to the fine efforts on the part of the different councils of the school, who sponsored the hops. Their preparation and planning resulted in many hours of enjoyment for the students of St. Patrick and neighboring girls' schools. Besides dancing to the hit records of the month, everyone also enjoyed popular numbers played by various guest bands.

We generally feel that soc-hops are a practical way to instruct boys and girls socially, and that they provide a wonderful night of entertainment for high school students.

"We'd rather fight than switch!"

"No, I'm not kiddin'; my feet are cold!"

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1963-64 Shamrock football team can easily be considered the best in the history of St. Patrick High School. The team was undefeated in league play, giving the school its first championship in its long history. After out-playing but not out-scoring their first opponent, the Shamrocks went on to win eight in a row.

The high point of the season turned out to be the St. Mel game. Both teams came into this game with identical league records of three wins and no losses. The end of the game found St. Pat's on top 10—7. The following week the team wrapped up the title by defeating St. George.

This final victory topped off the finest Shamrock football season to date. The varsity champions were later joined by the freshman and sophomore squads, who finished on top in their respective divisions.

Aside from winning the league championship, many other honors were given to the varsity and some of its individual members. Among these were the placing of six men on the All-Chicagoland Prep League team and a high ranking among the Chicago area's best.

If the performance of the underclassmen is any indication of the future, St. Pat's will not have to wait another 103 years for their next title.

Victorious Patsmen present championship trophies.

This year's squad showed improvement over its record as a frosh unit last year. They boasted a six and one record with their only loss coming in a non-conference game. Their four wins and no losses in league play enabled them to join the other two Shamrock football teams as Chicagoland Prep League champs. Coached by Mr. Mark Cummings, the team's attack was bolstered by a strong defense, which shut out five of its seven opponents. Their success this year points to a bright gridiron future for the Shamrocks.

To round off the greatest football season in St. Patrick's 103 years, the Freshman team fought to an undefeated league season. The only blemish on their record was a 31—13 defeat inflicted by the Notre Dame Dons. The score of this game does not reflect the fight and spirit shown by the squad. This same fight and spirit helped them compile their 5—1 over-all record.

But this alone could not put the team in first place. They needed something more—a good coach. St. Patrick was fortunate on this account; they had two good coaches, Mr. Murphy, head coach, and Brother Edward, who doubled as Freshman football moderator.

From their record and the potential they have shown we can expect more championship teams in the future.

In past years the cross-country season has come and gone with hardly any mention. But this year things were different. This year's cross-country team has something to show for the long weeks of practice at Riis Park. They brought home the second place trophy from the Chicagoland Prep League meet. The team was runner-up to St. Ignatius, the perennial Catholic League power.

The team's desire can also be seen in its fine season record. This includes a victory over a strong St. Ignatius team.

The team was sparked by Mike Cunningham, its captain. Mike, last year's most valuable runner, captured individual first place honors in the Chicagoland Prep League meet. Even more convincing was his twelfth place in the state finals. This was out of an original field of more than two hundred runners.

Although the team will be hurt by graduations next year, it can look forward to the return of many experienced runners.

CHICAGOLAND PREP LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

This year's Varsity Basketball Team brought many honors and commendations to St. Patrick High School. The team this year won the Joliet Catholic Tournament, the Chicagoland Prep League Christmas Tournament, for the third straight year they took the league championship, and also for the third straight year, St. Pat's won the Niles West Regional. The Shamrocks completed the 1964 season with a very fine record of twenty-five wins and only three losses.

Scoring balance and fine team play were the keys to St. Pat's success. Not depending on any one individual, the players took turns in sparking the team. Fine shooting and the effective use of the full court press were other trademarks of this outstanding team. But again it must be stressed that the Shamrock's victories were team efforts, in which the regulars were aided by a strong bench.

The climax of the season was the third Shamrock participation in the Illinois State High School Tournament. The team continued to be the scourge of the regionals, and just when it was approaching its peak, was upset by an underrated Evanston team in the Arlington Sectional. This loss ended a highly successful season for a highly successful Shamrock team.

FROSH-SOPH BASKETBALL

This year the St. Patrick fans were not used to losing basketball games. This can be seen in a fine varsity record. Yet many people failed to notice the achievements of the frosh-soph team. This year the future varsity stars captured first place in the Chicagoland Prep League. However, it was with many long hours of practice that this was accomplished. The team showed its ability to come through when the pressure was on by defeating St. Viator on its home court, thus breaking the first place tie.

Simon says, "Look up."

A band of noisy gentlemen is very conspicuous at our football and basketball games inciting the student body to a high pitch of enthusiasm. Cheerleaders form an important part of a winning combination, and our cheerleaders are not an exception. They form a link between the team members and the students, and often are just what is needed for victory.

GOLF

Last year saw the beginning of golf competition in the Chicagoland Prep League. The St. Patrick team, also in its initial year, captured the first place trophy in the C.P.L.

This year's team, which was composed of relatively the same men who had won the championship the year before, made a fine showing in the Chicagoland Prep League events.

Kneeling: S. Casano, R. Michal, D. Sowa, T. Lavelle, J. Lindahl. Standing: T. Donohoe, A. Younker, G. Frede, P. Blakely, M. Thomas, P. Kucharski, Mr. Basile (Coach).

BOWLING

This year the bowling team, in its second year of existence, strove to repeat as Chicagoland Prep League champions. Practicing both together and on their own, the team members put in much time to improve their bowling.

Mr. John Fiegen was bowling moderator, and his influence and encouragement helped bring out the best in his boys. Bowling has proven to be popular at St. Patrick, and will continue to be won.

Seated: J. Thornton, C. Perconti, D. Spratt, Mr. J. Fiegen, Moderator. Standing: D. Pawula, J. Sinkovitz, F. Pass, J. Kowalcyk, L. Pisano, T. McIntyre, M. Truitt, P. Kucharski.

TRACK

Track! Track! Around the city they run, practicing nearly year 'round. Even with the ground covered with snow the team held its daily practices. With both the indoor and outdoor track seasons to worry about, the runners and event men must work hard to get into top condition.

TEAMS

has made a fine showing in competition for the league title. St. Ignatius, the newest member of the league, posed the most serious challenge, but our team had many individuals who outshone the Ignatius cindermen. With the desire to win and hard work by all the members, the track team added another high finish to those we already owned.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team, although being St. Patrick's newest athletic representative, showed itself to be very formidable. The wrestlers put in many hours of practice under the coaching of Mr. Hester and Mr. Dempsey. Although the team was hampered throughout the season by inexperience, a few individuals came forward to show great promise. Among these were Tony Inzerillo and Brian Groth, who each took second place in their respective weight divisions in the Chicagoland Prep League meet.

TENNIS

Last year St. Pat's saw the beginning of a tennis team. The team took first place in the Chicagoland Prep League. Mr. McGrath, who replaced Brother Joseph as coach at mid-term, inherited a challenging assignment when he took charge. The team was completely rebuilt this year since most of last year's starters had graduated. However, the few returning starters coupled with this year's new prospects had good potential, and the product of their long hours of practice showed up during the season.

Front Row: F. Hurley, M. Carroll, J. Adrian, J. Wanders, R. Naselli, R. Kline, K. Mackowiak. Row Two: R. Hausknecht, M. Reilly, G. Mika, D. Sumiec, R. Walters, M. Beckman, J. Eburno, M.
